

Trustees Adjourned Meeting.

The Board of Trustees held an adjourned meeting last evening and canvassed the returns of the Charter election, which were corrected as follows:

Precinct.	For.	Against.	Total.
1st	112	56	168
2d	74	9	83
3d, No. 1	192	66	158
3d, No. 2	74	37	111
4th	47	101	148
5th	49	70	119
6th	66	41	107
7th	51	62	113

665 442 1107
There were 1124 votes cast, 17 of which were rejected. The above table shows a majority of 223 votes. From this number 17 should be taken leaving the actual majority 206.

When the Board was called to order President Acton, on account of a very severe cold and hoarseness, left the chair, and Trustee Jones was called to fill the position.

The charter votes, having been canvassed, the water rate bill was taken up. On one and two story houses a reduction from last year's rates was made, averaging about 10 per cent. The sprinkling supply was raised to 15 cents, and allows, not only the town, but private parties, to use the water at the same rate.

The Electric Light Company's bill was passed by a vote of 3 to 2.

The Board then adjourned.

Annexation Defeated.

Temescal will not come into Oakland to help make a greater Oakland just at present. The proposition to annex was defeated at the polls yesterday, and strange to say Temescal did the work. It took a majority vote, both inside and outside of Oakland, to carry the measure, and while Oakland voted favorably Temescal registered her vote adversely.

The vote in Oakland stood, for annexation, 2043; against, 386. In Temescal the vote was, for annexation, 278; against, 367. By precincts the vote was: Peralta—for, 59; against, 95. Temescal No. 1—for, 79; against, 91. Temescal No. 2—for, 140; against 181.

The annexationists do not feel at all dismayed over the result and say they will try again.

Boodlers in Sacramento.

Notwithstanding the good intentions of the Retrenchment and Reform Committee in the Senate they are thwarted when their reports come before the whole body to be acted upon. It looks now as if the record of this Legislature was going to be a disgraceful one for which not only the public but the Republican party will have to suffer.

General Mason Brayman, aged 81 years, said to be the oldest Free Mason in the United States and a former associate in legal practice with Abraham Lincoln, died in Kansas City yesterday.

In Embryo.

Should the railroad as proposed by Frederice Homer, already surveyed a good part of the distance, if not all, to Bakersfield from Stockton, and a company incorporated for the purpose, be commenced this summer it is more than probable that its terminal point will be very close to it not in Berkeley. "Rorax" Smith spoke about another road being built to a newspaper man who interviewed him on the subject.

Several years ago Mr. Homer had the matter pretty well in hand with the promise of English Capital to keep him. It went along for sometime when finally Cleveland was elected President and the tariff bill became disturbing element of the country. The English moneyed men would not come forward with capital until that matter was settled. Finally Mr. Homer gave them up and went East for the purpose of getting capitalists there to take hold of the proposition.

Upon what he considered a safe proposition he returned to California and immediately organized a company so that work could be commenced as soon after the arrival of the parties from the East as possible.

When the parties arrive it is very probable that whatever is to be done will be finished in a very quiet manner and about the first thing the public will know of it is when the first blow of building it is struck.

The Sun's Corona.

Professor J. M. Schaeberle of the Lick Observatory delivered a lecture of more than ordinary interest in the Young Men's Christian Association Hall, San Francisco, last evening. It was given under the auspices of the Geographical Society of the Pacific. Facts and incidents in relation to the eclipse expedition to Chile were dilated upon. The expedition was a perfect success. During the lecture stereoptican pictures were shown, showing the appearance of the surrounding of the sun during the eclipse. Nothing less than a full publication of the lecture could be given and made satisfactory. In it were facts given to the world never known before.

A report is abroad that the street railroad on San Pablo avenue, for which a franchise was granted by the Board of Trustees some three years ago, is going to be built by the grantees or their successors. The Board passed a resolution to the effect that the parties having the franchise had not complied with its terms and therefore it was abandoned.

Bert Schlesinger has been appointed Deputy U. S. District Attorney in place of the man recommended by U. S. District Attorney Foote. The latter gentleman is somewhat annoyed but will have to submit as Olney is on top.

Nine commissioners to represent the United States at the International Monetary Conference will be appointed.

New Salaries for County Officers.

Under the new County of Alameda delegation the following salaries: Sheriff, $12,500; Superintendent, $4,500; Auditor, $3,500; Tax Collector, $13,000; Recorder, $5,000; District Attorney, $7,500 on the Treasurer's salary has not yet been agreed upon.

Another Railroad Project.

In an interview with F. M. Smith of Oakland, who has just arrived from the East, he expressed the idea that another railroad would be built through the San Joaquin Valley by Eastern capitalists. He had reference to the temptation by Frederick resident of Berkeley, engaged in that department years and has already made to Bakersfield.

Officers Elected.

The officers of the San Francisco and San Joaquin Valley Railroad Company have been elected. Claus Spreckles is president; W. F. Whittier, first vice-president; Robert Watt, second vice-president; Isaac Upham, secretary (pro tem); Bank of California, treasurer, and E. F. Preston, attorney. The appointment of an engineer will be made later on.

Dr. Charles W. Breyfogle, aged 53 years, at one time Mayor of San Jose, a member of the State Board of Health, and twice President of the State Medical Society, died in San Jose last evening at 11:30 of paralysis of the heart. He served in the rebellion as Captain of Company E, Ninth Ohio Cavalry, was a founder of the Garfield City National Bank, in San Jose, a prominent mason, and one of the organizers of the Odd Fellows Hall Association in the same city.

The Veterans in Vallejo, who complained of Assistant Naval Constructor Snow, were a little too previous. They misunderstood an order he had given and have made a public apology to that gentleman.

The Deaf, Dumb and Blind Asylum in Berkeley has been dropped from the list of State institutions to be superintended by the proposed Board to control many of the public Asylums.

Permission was granted to somebody last Monday night, by the Board of Trustees, to carry weapons. To whom has been kept a secret.

It looks as if all of the officers from every county in the State were in Sacramento to oppose the reduction of salaries.

It seems to be pretty well settled that the Viticultural commission will pass under the control of the State University.

County Officers.

The Altrurian of February 25, 1895, published in Sonoma county, an exponent of the society's idea, is filled with appropriate news, and makes a nice typographical appearance. Edward B. Two lovers in Milwaukee agreed to commit suicide at the same hour the other night. Next morning both were up an hour earlier than usual to look over the paper, and their disappointment and disgust at such conduct on the part of the other was too deep for utterance.

About this time the young man and maiden at the summer resort are both wondering how they can honorably bring their prolonged flirtation to a close without an engagement. If they could only read each other's mind, there would be an immediate and cheerful agreement to knock off, call it square and forget all about it.

The man who was told by the pastor of the church he attended to eat raw beef hearts, so that his heart would grow large enough to permit him to put a nickle in the contribution box, instead of a cent, has quit being a church member, because he argued that beef hearts cost five cents each, and maybe it might take several to make his heart grow to the size of a nickle.

Sir Henry Thompson, the London surgeon, scouts as a complete fallacy the notion that fish-eating increases the brain power. He says, "The only action fish has on the brain is to put a man's body into proper relations with the work he has to do." THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1895.

A GLANCE FORWARD.

The immediate results of the new charter will only be in giving the public more confidence in the future. There may be some who are fearful that it may meet with a like result of the town's first attempt to become a city. Every precaution has been taken to make the document a legal one in all respects. On that ground there does not appear to be the slightest chance of its being upset through the technicalities of the law.

An election for a new set of officers, with the exception of two Justices of the Peace, will be held on the second Monday in May 1895, and on the next Monday after having been officially declared elected they will hold their first meeting. This will occur in the latter part of next May. At that time the new government will commence active operations. The tax levy will not be made until September and it will be another year before much money is available on account of the town's present indebtedness. Consequently it will be quite a while before very much improvement can be made over the present system. The principal change will be in the duties of the several officers elected. The office of constable will be done away with and the Marshal will act instead, he having the same power as a sheriff under the State law. After the new wheels once get in motion and become smooth of action progression will quickly come to the front. From that time onward we look to see Berkeley become a town of a great deal of more importance than at the present time.

With honest, capable and progressive men in the official positions there is no reason why good times should not exist here. For many years the internal improvements will keep a goodly number of people in constant employment. The town will be made more attractive for people to come here and settle. Beautiful as nature has made it there will be many things added which will make it still more desirable to locate in.

Without any of these additions we have grown very fast in population during the past five years. In another period of the same time there is no doubt our census will show double the number of people there is now on the rolls. The increase of population will increase business and bring more money into general circulation. This always has a tendency to make the times more easy for all of our inhabitants.

It is certainly a pretty view to look forward to and there does not seem to be any reason why Berkeley's great expectations should not be fully realized. With all of this in view there are several things which must not be overlooked. Very few of the good things of this earth come to us without we work for them.

Governor McKinley of Ohio, in a recent speech before the Chamber of Commerce of Rochester said:

"Our interest in public affairs, National, State and city, should be ever present and active, and not abated from one year's end to the other. No American citizen is too great and none too humble to be exempt from any civic duty, however subordinate. Every public duty is honorable.

"If the best citizens will not unite to serve the State or city the worst may and generally will be in control. There is in every State and city a majority in favor of the best government, and when they fail to secure it it is because the majority is indifferent and without unity of purpose and action. Business men cannot with safety, stand aloof from political duties. Their success or failure in their own enterprises is often involved in good or bad government. The great danger to the country is indifference.

"This menace often comes from the busy man or man of business and sometimes from those possessing the most leisure or learning. I have known men engaged in great commercial enterprises to leave home on the eve of an election, and then complain of the result, when their presence and the good influence they might properly have exerted would have secured a different and better result."

The Telephone Company in East Berkeley, having had an office fitted up in the Hann block in fine style, moved into it today. Reciprocity.

The GAZETTE's subscription list continues to increase daily and its columns are being filled with new advertisements. Those who do let the world know that they are in business in Berkeley through these columns feel confident of the future in the way of business.

Although there never is a time when it does not pay to advertise there are certain seasons in the year when it is customary to make extra display. Now is the time to so shape your sails that they may catch the full effects of the breeze. If you want home patronage show that you practice what you preach and encourage the local press. It will never be behind in holding you up to public favor. The home newspaper is often wanted in times of need and no one is oftener called upon to do charitable work than the newspaper man. Then why not by helping yourselves give him a chance?

Connubiators.

This is the time of year in Berkeley when candidates for political honors begin to sprout. Until their heads get above ground you cannot give their proper names. The soil here is just as prolific of men who want to hold an office as it is in giving birth and growth to things pertaining to the vegetable kingdom. Like wheat, there are often tares which have to be sifted out after the manner of obnoxious weeds. In another week the shells will be off the backs of some of them, and as fast as the labels can be read the GAZETTE will give them world-wide notoriety through its columns and the post office.

At a meeting of the South Berkeley Improvement Club on Tuesday evening it was the sense of the members that the town attorney be consulted to find out whether the Trustees had the power to force the Contra Costa Water Company to put in larger pipe so as to have a hydrant on the corner of Shattuck and Ashby avenues.

A British ship fired upon an American schooner while landing arms at a port north of Bluefields.

Gazenego's Electric Shampoo.

Sam Gelder, the celebrated American pantomime clown and character delineator, in conjunction with Harry Lloyd, the renowned vocalist and actor, will hereafter manage Gelder's Electric Comedy Company.

They will be supported by a host of vaudeville artists. They will also introduce to the public Mr. Gazenego's Electric Shampoo, a splendid toilet preparation, a purely vegetable compound, free from all irritating and poisonous substances. It prevents and removes dandruff. This article is manufactured by the Electric Shampoo Company at West Berkeley.

The public is requested to come and see this toilet preparation operated upon the stage as there will be a person selected from the audience every night who will receive a free shampoo. There will be a change of programme each and every night. Will exhibit on Wednesday night and continue until Saturday in their large show tent on Fifth street, near University avenue.

Read William C. Bissell's advertisement in relation to insurance. The cut in rates as foretold in the GAZETTE has come to hand and now is the time for insurers to take advantage of it. The Company Mr. Bissell represents is a large one and with it he is bound to take a large amount of Berkeley business.

Work has been commenced on two sewers on Shattuck avenue, one 180 feet in length north of Kent street and the other 180 feet north of Prince street.
